THE FIRST WAR FOR THE WEST

A time when history became legend

EPIC, 8-EPISODE, DOCU-DRAMA SERIES

"Go back 2,500 years to the wars between ancient Greece (West) and Persia (East). The Greco-Persian Wars 2,500 years ago were a clash between two peoples, two cultures, two systems of government and two continents. The first clash between East and West. A clash that has, sadly, continued all the way to today."

THE QUEST FOR THE ATHLOS

Narrated by Academy-Award Winner
Peter Ustinov

See Video & Info

English language; Greek subtitles available on DVD only

To the ancient Greeks, athletics made gods and heroes of men. This program journeys among the ruins of antiquity to depict ancient stadiums and gymnasiums and to discover where the spirit of peaceful contest was cultivated. Athlos - participating in athletics - initially defined these significant deeds: the pursuit of perfection through creative activities that involve physical endurance and skill, as well as virtue, energy, beauty, and health. An insightful and thorough examination of the basis upon which the Greek ideals of athleticism and sportsmanship were formed.

KALLISTI ("Most Beautiful")

See Video & Info

English Language; No Subtitles

This archaeological documentary short artfully covers the bronze age origins of the Greek island of SANTORINI. Today Santorini taunts us to identify it with Plato's legendary lost island of ATLANTIS. The island's original name of KALLISTI, meaning "most beautiful", was given to it by the Minoans of Crete. Befitting the name Kallisti, this documentary conveys the awesome beauty that was, and is, Santorini.
